

SHINE

Written by Greg Paul Stone

If you're broken and weary and over it all
I'll be there right by your side if you stumble and fall

If the road that you travel is winding and long
Come with me and I'll carry you home in my loving arms

Hold up to the light
Don't say goodbye, oh these tears I cry
We knew it was right
Oh the love inside, oh the rising tide lifts me loving you here tonight

[SOLO]

If you're left here to suffer the wreck and the fall
Take my hand, I'll give you my heart, you can have it all

Hold up to the light
Don't say goodbye, oh these tears I cry
We knew it was right
Oh the love inside, oh the rising tide lifts me loving you here tonight

(Shine! Shine! Ooh shine. Shining down for us to see)
Yes I see a brighter day is coming for you soon darling
Shining down for us to see

(Shine! Shine! Ooh shine. Shining down for us to see)
Yes, I see a brighter day is coming for you soon darling.
Shining down for us to see

(Shine! Shine! Ooh shine. Shining down for us to see)
(Shine! Shine! Ooh shine. Shining down for us to see)
